I Have Questions: Money

When it comes to money, regardless of how much or little we have, we can all relate to the feeling of wanting more. This week, we are talking with your student about what a healthy relationship with money looks like and how changing our desire from “more” to “enough” can keep money in a proper perspective.

MEMORY VERSE

“Wherever your treasure is,
there the desires of your heart will also be.”
Matthew 6:21, NLT

Week One

I Timothy 6:10, Matthew 6:19–21

You can own money or money can own you.

ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

As your teen starts their day, send them off with some encouraging words. Here's a phrase to cue you, "I hope you know . . ."

Their Time

Strengthen your relationship by adjusting your plans to show up whenever they need you.

Meal Time

Share with your teen some of the things you've learned about managing money—even if some of those lessons were learned the hard way.

Bed Time

Pray for your teen, "God, help [child's name] to see money as a tool to use for good. Help them see it as a provision for what they need, a possibility for what they want, and an opportunity to help someone in need."
